THE 2006 HOLIDAY PARADE OF LIGHTS IN SALINAS
PARADE WINNERS

Salinas, CA ... The Salinas Holiday Parade of Lights has announced its 2006 parade entry winners for the 2006 Holiday Parade of Lights in Salinas, held at 7 PM on November 30, 2006. Each entry was judged on their overall expression of the parade theme, “One City, Many Cultures”, including Decoration, Presentation, and Music Selection. The Parade Committee would like to thank all the parade entrants for participating.

The winner of the “Best in Show” category is the Ke Kai O’Uhane group. This group also won the “Overall Winner” in the Float category, as well as the “Most creative use of Lights” and “Best adaptation of parade theme” in the Float category.

In the Walking Group category, the Girls Scouts of Monterey Bay and their entry “Christmas Around the World” wins “Most creative use of lights”, and the Girls Scouts Brownie Troop #3056 and Junior Troop #3006 of Prunedale win the “Best adaptation of parade theme” for their entry “Singing Angels”.

The Rockstarz Dance Team wins all the Dance Group category awards, including “Most creative use of lights” and “Best adaptation of parade theme”.

The winner of the Vehicle category is RGIS investments in Monterey, for their creative use of lights.

The winner of the “Battle of the High School Marching Bands” is North Monterey County High School.
